What is the value of coaching credentials?

- Credibility
- Confidence
- Connection with Opportunities
- Coaching Mindset
- Contribution to the Profession

In the 2020 ICF Global Coaching Study,
85% of coaches agreed that clients expect them
to be certified or credentialed.

83% of consumers who experienced a coaching relationship reported that it was important or very important for coaches to hold a credential, according to the 2017 ICF Global Consumer Awareness Study.

Consumers are more likely to recommend a coach who holds a credential than a coach who does not, the 2017 ICF Global Consumer Awareness Study reports.

How do I decide?

- What do you feel God has called you to?
- What does that look like (your vision)?
- How will credentials support that vision?

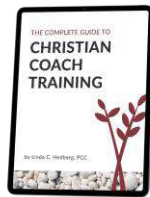

What next?

- Training
- Coaching Experience Hours
- Mentor Coaching
- Successful Recorded Coaching Session
- Study for Written Test

Next Steps: Training

- Choose qualifying coach training
- Find programs listed at ICF and CCNI
- For help get my ebook – find link at christiancoachingresources.com/ccni2021

Next Steps: Coach Experience Hours

- Pursue paying clients
- Pursue pro bono clients
- Pursue exchange of service and barter clients (count as paid)
- Exchange services with another professionally trained coach (count as paid)

Next Steps: Mentor Coaching

- Find in your training program
- Find at ICF Mentor Coach Registry
- Find with the CCNI coach finder
- Mentor Coach presentation in January

Next Steps: Successful Coaching Recording

- Ensure your skills are at the appropriate level by choosing excellent coach training and working with your mentor coach
- Work with a mentor coach who can help you confidently choose your recording for submission

Next Steps: Study for Written Test (ICF)

- Prepare for ICF's Coaching Knowledge Exam (CKA)
- Choose coach training that will effectively prepare you by providing thorough teaching in alignment with ICF's Core Competencies.
- Work with a mentor coach who can support your understanding and application of ICF's Core Competencies.

Tips for Success

- Stay up-to-date on the requirements for your desired credential(s)
- Research and confirm qualifying accreditation and approval status with your training organization(s)
- Record coaching experience hours as you go (see ICF template to download)
- File records along the way

Thank you!
